From the President's Desk

Dear Friends:

I first started looking into my family history in 1991. Claude was gathering up a lot about the Spainhours and we were both interested in finding and copying old family pictures. The "bug" really got me in 1993 while I was planning my parent's 60th wedding anniversary celebration. My Dad was very interested in finding any remaining relatives, so I began making phone calls and filling out a family chart to go into a souvenir program we made for each member of our family. Some of the names I had never heard of brought back a lot of memories for my Dad and then we found names even he didn't know. Soon I had a lot of names and places to research. Mack Napoleon Rowton, my dearest Grandpa, and his father James Monroe whom I also remembered; but who was Warren Cyrenous Rowton and three generations of William Rowtons; Robert Gray, George Gray, Levi Alexander Reece, Mal R. Reaves, Thomas Jefferson Blanchard and Sarah Cartledge? I wanted to know all I could about these people and copy any pictures I could find. When I really started looking, I found pictures my parents had never seen, many found in boxes in back of closets and some that are so wonderful I can't believe we had never seen them. But there are a lot of names with faces I'll never see unless by some miracle, I find a portrait. I was lucky with one Great, Great Grandpa, his civil war papers had a note that said, "five feet - eight inches tall, dark hair, ruddy complexion, blue eyes". It made him much more real just to know that.

I encourage you to collect pictures from everyone who will share and save those without names or with unfamiliar names. You may find later that you passed up the chance for a picture of someone very important to you.

If you're interested in finding pictures, first try family and family friends. I found a scrapbook in the home of one of my Mother's school friends with eight snapshots taken of my Mom and Dad on a date with two other couples. The pictures are so cute and funny and the only ones we have of my parents together before they were married. The date, by the way, was a picnic and the girls were presented with bouquets and the fellows wore suits, ties and hats.

I consider our pictures a real legacy for my children and it's another way to preserve family memories that we all enjoy. If you aren't already collecting pictures, you need to start now. I have nightmares about boxes of pictures being tossed away or burned up or blown away in a storm.

Put a face or description with your family names, it's well worth the effort!

Mary Spainhour

Sketches Of Early Ashley County Families

C. H. ANDREWS

C. H. Andrews, planter, Petersburg, Arkansas. This enterprising and successful agriculturist was originally from Georgia. His birth occurring in 1887, and is a son of William ANDREWS, also a native of Georgia. The father was in many of the Indian Wars, also in the War of 1812 under JACKSON, being a participant in the battle of New Orleans. He died in 1856 and the mother in 1865. C. H. ANDREWS began life for himself in Alabama in 1844, and later married to Miss Martha HEWEY, of Alabama, daughter of S. J. HEWEY. In 1851 Mr. ANDREWS moved to Arkansas, settled in Ashley County, and entered the first land in Marie Saline Township, about three miles from the present site of Petersburg in 1859. He first entered 200 acres, but now owns 320 acres of hill land, and has forty-five acres under cultivation. He averages from 800 to 1,000 pounds of cotton and twenty bushels of corn to the acre. He has an excellent farm, the soil being unusually fertile. To his marriage was born one daughter, Emily, now the wife of J. P. NEAL, of Ashley County, who resides about five miles from Petersburg. Mr. ANDREWS was married, a second time, to Miss Mary O. HOKE, daughter of W. H. HOKE, who died in 1879, and who was constable of Marie Saline Township, for some time. Mr. HOKE participated in the late war, and was under Col. WRIGHT and later FAGAN. To Mr. and Mrs. ANDREWS were born six living children: Arthur La Fayette, C. H., Jr., Lillon, Pauline, Annie Bell and Josie Lee. Mr. ANDREWS was in the late war in the Ninth Arkansas, in LORING'S division, BUFORD'S brigade and Col. DUNLAP'S infantry, and at the battle of Baker's Creek he was taken prisoner. He was confined seven months, and then was paroled, and returned home. He then resumed his farming operations and this he has carried on ever since. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and he and his wife are honored members of the Baptist Church.

World War I Registration

During World War I all the men between the ages of 17-45 were required to register for the draft. Conscription began 5 June 1917. The registration cards for the whole United States are now located at the Georgia Branch of the National Archives. These are useful in tracing immigrant ancestors who came in the flood of immigrants between 1900-1915. To obtain copies of individual draft registrations write :
